Notes from Jackie's Desk

Well, just like the rest of you I'm getting a little tired of these April showers. Fortunately the weather cooperated and we were able to run the Dressage Show and Test clinic without getting wet. The 8 people who scratched because of the weather made the wrong call ;) The results are posted later in on p

The weather and the high gas prices have no doubt weighed on the minds of competitors as entries are slow coming in. Late entries will be accepted until May 7th or until we are full. There will be a $25 late fee and entries MUST be made with either Equestrian Entries or X Entry and pay with a credit card. The cross country courses will be geared towards early season for those who have not been able to get out much yet this spring.

Again you will be seeing more in regards to Stone Gate Farm's 25th Birthday Celebration which you see more of in various sections of the newsletter. Please check out our new advertisers: Durkey Hills Stable, the High Times Stables Jumper Derby at Sugar Brook Farm and the All American Tent Rental Company on page 9. Through our sponsors and advertisers we are able to provide additional amenities that the entry fees alone don't cover not to mention all the great prizes that will be given out throughout the year for the SGF Birthday Celebration.

Some of the information in the newsletter may seem a bit repetitive but please do check out the whole newsletter and there are some important updates in the various sections.

Jackie

Update on the Stone Gate Farm 25th Birthday Celebration

We already have winners in our year long birthday celebration. Patty Keim will receive a prize for being the first one to sign up for the Snap Snap Texting service for Winona, Jennifer Wilkes for being the first to sign up for the eventing camp, Madeline Bletzacker won a drawing from those who had a complete and correct entry postmarked by April 5th, and Jan Yosay was the raffle winner at the dressage show and test clinic. SGF blog home page or any of the following pages listed: Clinics and Camps, The Competitors Corner, Volunteer Views, will periodically have more information

As we said earlier, we would like to feature stories from about your experiences at Stone Gate Farm over the last 25 years but responses have been minimal even with the promise of prizes. So in addition to prizes we will be awarding $$$$ in the form of Stone Gate Farm Gift Certificates for winners. The 'best blogs' in each category will receive a $100 SGF Gift Certificate. In addition the raffle grand prize for Competitors and Volunteers will also be $100 SGF Gift Certificates each. That's a total of $500! If you have a story that you would like to share please send them to SGFblog@stonegatefarm.org. We really would like to see your pics too.

Since May is the official birthday of Stone Gate Farm, please join us after cross country on May 15th for some birthday cake!

Eagle Watch

Over the last few days the boys have seen a young bald eagle that has been making brief visits to the farm. Since I have not seen him yet I'm challenging visitors to the farm to keep an eye out for him. We'll have a prize for the first photo taken of him Winona weekend. Keep in mind that this eagle is young and he has light colored feathers on his belly. Of course where there are young eagles, there will be mature eagles so any eagle picture taken at our farm will do.

For those city folks please note: we have many turkey vultures, Canadian geese, various ducks, a resident red tail hawk and a great blue heron. They are not to be mistaken for the eagle (ha, ha) The photo above is of a young bald eagle and the photo on the right is a turkey vulture and a great blue heron on the left

Happy bird watching!

FEH May 13 ~ Winona Horse Trials ~ May 14 - 15

Be sure to check out the Winona Horse Trials and Stone Gate Farm in the new USEA magazine. It should be in your mailbox this week. I'd like to thank Emily Daily from the USEA for giving the 'little guys' some coverage in the USEA News.

Entries are slowly coming in but it looks like we will be accepting late entries through May 7th or until we are full, whichever comes first. Please note that late entries will be assessed a $25 late fee and MUST be made via www.EquestrianEntries.com or the USEA's Express X Entry at <https://services.useventing.com/Services/Login.aspx> and paid with a credit card. This will make life infinitely easier for Penne, our secretary, who is preparing for her daughter's wedding on the 8th.

25th Celebration of the Winona Horse Trials at the Huffman Farm 2009

fee. However if you want on grounds stabling I suggest that you enter and pay on line as that way your paid entry will be received a few days earlier than if you mailed it.

Although entries are suppose to be in the secretary's hand BY closing date; if they are postmarked by closing date they will not be assessed the later

For all you mare owners out there; you may want to come out on Fri May 13th to check out the three you stallion prospects who are entered in the Future Event Horse classes. Or you may just want to meet Jack & Jill.

If for some reason you won't be able to compete at Winona; we can always use a few more volunteers ;)

Volunteers Views

The Winona Horse Trials is still in NEED of volunteers. Check out the Volunteer Calendar and Job Descriptions or e-mail me and start earning those SGF bucks that can be redeemed on activities @ SGF or the upcoming logo-wear. Sign up now to volunteer, no experience needed; we'll give you on the job training.

Don't forget the Stone Gate Farm 25th Birthday Celebration! Every time you volunteer you will receive a raffle ticket for prizes at each competition and a grand prize drawing at the end of the year which is a $100 Stone Gate Farm Gift Certificate. Any volunteer who bring a new volunteer will also receive an additional raffle ticket.

So you say you're not so lucky; how about increasing you odds by taking matters into your own hands? All you have to do is write about your experiences as a volunteer for the Volunteer Views blog contest. The best story from a volunteer at any of our competitions in the last 25 years will receive a $100 Stone Gate Farm Gift Certificate. This is in addition to the raffle grand prize. The Stories will be posted on this blog and some will be printed in the newsletter. E-mail your stories or new threads so I can get them posted.

Thanks for being a volunteer; we couldn't do what we do without your help.

Competitors Corner ~ Stone Gate Farm

Check out the Competitors Corner on the SGF Blog <http://sgfcompetitors.blogspot.com/> we have a couple short posts from competitors. But I must say that it will take a slightly longer post to win the $100 Stone Gate Farm Gift Certificate Grand Prize for the best blog post. So let's get those reports for the Competitor's Corner in so we can start sharing and enjoying them. E-mail (click here) your stories.

For those competitors who are new and don't have a story to tell or aren't very fond of writing, you still will be eligible for another Certificate Grand Prize. Competitors will also receive a raffle ticket every time you participate in an activity at SGF. Any competitor who brings a new volunteer will also receive an additional raffle ticket.

Remember the website www.stonegatefarm.org will still be the place for general information but the blog spot will allow for interaction among competitors. The blog was designed just for competitors and it will have updated information posted there and give you an opportunity to share your experiences, photos or ask questions so be sure to become a follower so you can be kept in the loop.

Join us for SGF 25th Birthday cake after the last horse goes cross country @ Winona Celebration! As always, thank you for supporting activities @ SGF.

Clinics and Camp

If you've reading this newsletter from cover to cover; by now you should know the drill. Come to a clinic or camp and be eligible for prizes at each activity as well as a $100 Stone Gate Farm Gift Certificate Grand Prize. If you want to increase your chances of winning prizes & gift certificates share your story and or a photo from a clinic or camp -- educational, sad, funny -- whatever just as long as it relates a clinic or camp at SGF and send it to SGFblog@stonegatefarm.org.

NOTICE: There are still some spots available in the Lucinda Green Clinic and the Eventing Camp. Early registration rates for camp expire on May 30th (forms are on pages 14 & 17) or <http://www.stonegatefarm.org/clinic.htm>. After that date the price goes up. Don't miss out in these opportunities to take your riding and your knowledge to the next level while having a bunch of fun with other like minded riders.

Check out the clinics and camps blog for links to our instructors' websites.

Stone Gate Farm News

The Adventures of Jack & Jill

Jack and Jill are progressing nicely although the weather has prevented us from doing as much as we would like. The both are under saddle now but haven't gone completely solo yet outside of the round pen. We've got a lot of work to do to get them shedded & trimmed up for their competition debut in the FEH classes. They came down to the ring during the dressage show to check out the other horses. Let's hope they behave as well for the FEH test.

They continue to be a joy to have around (for the most part) and we are looking forward to seeing how they develop. You can keep up with them via their blog: <http://stonegatefarm-adventuresofjackjill.blogspot.com/>

Quick News and Notes

- Although we had some scratches due to possible bad weather which fortunately didn't materialize; the dressage show and test clinic was again well received. We had a young lady (10 years old) making her dressage show debut and she did a great job riding both tests from memory, rode accurate tests and her horse was sporting a lovely French braid. Results on p. 13
- Jackie attended the USEF Eventing Officials Clinic at the lovely Chattahoochee Hills in GA which is the site of the AEC's. She was the only official there who holds a judge's, TD & course designer license which made for a loooong but informative weekend. Unfortunately she missed the one nice weekend at home ;(
- Kyle's application for a Technical Delegate's license will be reviewed by the USEF's Licensed Officials this week. You're your fingers crossed that they grant him his license.
- If any of mare owners are looking for a potential event stallion to breed to in the future, you may want to arrive a little early on Fri. May 13th as we have 3 young stallions entered in the Future Event Horse classes.
- The new stall gates have arrived for the pipe barn and the tent with tables and chairs have been ordered for competitors near the stabling area.
- Don't forget to join the new Northeast Ohio Mini Trial Association and be eligible for year end awards for both the Mini Trials and new this year, year end awards for Hunter Paces

LUCINDA GREEN CLINIC

JUNE 2 – 3, 2011 ~ THURS/FRI

Opening Date: Jan. 1

Closing Date: May 17

Lucinda Green is one of the best event riders in the world. Known as an excellent instructor, you will emerge from this clinic with improved skills and renewed confidence.

Riders and horses will be grouped together by level. The first day will be using stadium jumps to practice cross-country questions, such as: corner, angled fences, skinmys, unusual distances and lines etc.

The second day will be devoted to cross-country schooling, using existing cross-country fences and taking stadium jumps out to create interesting and challenging combinations.

Event Camp

July 19 – 22, 2011 ~ Tues - Fri

OUR EVENTING CAMP WILL PROVIDE INTENSIVE INSTRUCTION IN DRESSAGE, CROSS COUNTRY & SHOW JUMPING WITH USEA ICP LEVEL III INSTRUCTORS IN A RELAXED CAMP LIKE ATMOSPHERE THAT'S AWAY FROM LIFE'S DAILY INTERRUPTIONS!!

About the Instructors:

Doug Payne has extensive competition experience at Advanced Level in Eventing, Grand Prix Show Jumping as well as Intermediare Dressage. Doug holds both USEF Judges and TD's licenses for Eventing, and is a USEA certified Level III instructor. This will be Doug's first trip to Stone Gate Farm and we're excited to have him coming to our camp. For more information: <http://www.docquestrian.com/>

Eric Dierks has competed through the Four Star level as well as the upper levels in Show Jumping and Dressage Shows. Eric has been the coach for the Area IV Young Riders Teams as well as being a USEA certified Level III Instructor with a great reputation for making his lessons both fun and educational. We're looking forward to having Eric return to Stone Gate Farm. For more info: <http://ericdierks.com/>

Sue Hines has competed very successfully through the Advanced level on her own OTTB's and homebreds and has received the USDF Bronze Medal. Sue has extensive experience with a vast array of horses with a unique ability to figure out just what the horse and rider need to improve their performance and partnership. Sue also is a USEA certified Level III instructor. Sue is a familiar face at Stone Gate Farm and we're very lucky to have her living so close.

Dave and Jackie Smith moved to the 80 acre Stone Gate Farm in 1986. Over the years and countless hours of hard work they have turned corn fields and overgrown useless land into hay fields and pasture that now features 11 ponds of various sizes and shapes. Two additional pieces of property were bought and the farm is now up to 111 acres. Dave a large animal veterinarian, Jackie a professional equestrian (rider, trainer, coach & USEF licensed official, USEA Level II Certified Instructor) and their two sons Kyle (USEA Level I Certified Instructor) and Kevin call SGF home. Several times a year they open their 'home' to numerous equestrian enthusiasts to two USEA recognized events, two unrecognized events, two hunter paces, a dressage show, combined test, camps, annual clinics with Lucinda Green and more.
